Acapulco - from Hollywood's playground to murderous city - Acapulco - from Hollywood's playground to murderous city 13 minutes, 18 seconds - Acapulco, a beach resort town located on the Pacific coast of Mexico, is known for its beautiful vistas and beaches. It became ...

But the Spanish imperialists never lived here.

So the stars had to come to Acapulco

John Wayne, Errol Flynn, Orson Welles, Elizabeth Taylor, Lana Turner and Esther Williams.

They bought an entire hotel- the Flamingos Hotel

John Wayne was the owner of this hotel.

It wasn't until 1966 when the Mexican president paved the town's roads.

That's when the tourism boom started

At that time, it was very common for Hollywood stars to come here.

The problem came with the drug traffickers.

The violence in Guerrero is systemic, permanent, constant and recurrent.

The vast majority of murder victims here are young people

This is what has happened to Acapulco

And the organized people in Acapulco are fierce and combative.

The violence started in 2010. And has been very bad ever since.

But the violence has been constant.

Crime is going down.

The victim has the law on their side.

But unfortunately, it takes a lot of work to build trust in our authorities and legal system.

Tourism represents our top form of income.

When there's tourism, there are a lot of different work opportunities for the people here.
