Movie Making Manual/Low Budget/Shooting on Film

guide in the Telecine section for a cost-free telecine method. Before some wiseguys rush to say that the method is useless, I would like to make clear that

You can shoot on 16mm very cheaply if you want. If you wish to shoot on film, here's one way of doing that (prices are for the UK):

== Stock ==

Get yourself some short ends AKA free film.

Run the stock through a dip test to find out which cans are dud and which are usable.

== Camera hire ==

Most large rental houses have some very nice people in them who are willing to lend cheapskates like us a decent 16mm camera kit for virtually nothing. Just be honest with them - tell them you've done everything you can to raise the money and promise them a screen credit. Be VERY nice to them. You could get an Arri SR11, with a set of primes and a handful of glass filters for around UKP 100 - 200 for a WEEK. Try to avoid shooting in summer though as all the film students will be using the kit. And remember...

== Introduction ==

Words in Mirad can be grouped into families. By "family" is meant a group of words derived from the same root morpheme. This chapter explains that process.

== Morphemes and Base Words ==

All native words in Mirad are formed from a combination of some 500 morphemes and base words. (A morpheme is a word or word root that cannot be further divided. Think of it as a "word atom". A base word is a consonant template which is completed with ordinal vowels that fill out the meaning. Listed below is an alphabetical list of those morphemes and base words in mirad. The base words are listed with o, which means that they represent the top-level member of a scalar list of words where the ordinal vowel changes. For example, mor (universe) is the top-level member of a related hierarchy...

Grand Theft Auto: Liberty City Stories/Printable version

Angels in Shortside Vale Dragon Jumpsuit Crazy 69 Antonio Making Toni Sweats A Walk in the Park Goodfella Overdose of Trouble Wiseguy Shoot The Messenger -

= Story =

The game takes place in Liberty City, 1998, before the events of Grand Theft Auto III and Grand Theft Auto taking place in 2000 and 2001. You start out playing as Toni Cipriani, a made man and Capo for the Leone Mafia family last seen in Grand Theft Auto III, returns to the city after a period of "laying low", having killed a "made man" before to the approval of don Salvatore Leone. Upon arrival, however, he finds that the Leones have moved on with business and Toni's position as Capo was seized by another member. Starting again as a low ranking goon of Salvatore's mob, Toni must once again work his way back up to his former position as the second-in-command to the don. You, the player, will assume the role of Tony Cipriani upon arrival in Liberty City.

Mandarin, like any language, has its own slang words and informal meanings for some common words. For example, 同志 (tóngzhì - comrade, a commonly used under Communism) now has a second meaning of "gay person" (because it literally means "same aspirations"—in this case sexual proclivities rather than political interests), and the female equivalent 小姐 (xiǎojiě, often used with service personnel such as waitresses) can also refer to a prostitute. Below is a partial list of common slang terms. The letters "xx" stand for someone or something, lit. gives a literal translation, and equiv. refers to an equivalent English expression.
