The March 1966 blizzard, paralyzing most of the Dakotas and extending into Minnesota and Canada, has become legendary

Visibility in the open country and farm yards was reduced to zero for 11 straight hours during the storm.

Statewide warnings to stay indoors were in effect.

For the first time in the history of many towns, everything was shut down.

Schools were closed, all business was suspended, newspapers failed to publish, and all forms of traffic came to a complete halt.

Another girl, age 12, of Woodworth, slipped out of the house to close a chicken-coop door.

Her frozen body was found the next day, half- a-mile from home.

Minimum temperatures during the blizzard were, in general, in the teens.

Heavy drifts crushed sheds and aircraft hangers and many store windows were blown

Snow was driven into attics and chimney vents were frozen, resulting in a number of cases of gas poisoning.
